to my satisfaction. I regret that it is not in my power to employ him any longer as the

To
G. L. Pendergast Esq.
Accountant General

Sir

In consequence of the abolition of the Government Agency my services will not be required from the 27th Instant. Having served the prescribed period to entitle me to a pension, I would prefer retiring from the service, rather than be provided with another situation in your Office upon my present salary, the duties of which I do not think I should be able to discharge, either with approbation to you or with satisfaction to myself. It could not always be expected in a person of my time of life.

2^d I have served the Government 32 years. The accompanying Certificate will show that I did so with satisfaction for one year in Foreign Service, having joined the Pay Office on the first Expedition to Burmah. The other 31 years I have served in the Accountant General's Office, I trust with credit to myself and with the approbation of my superiors.

3^d It was not the practice with Mr Turnbull, and those who succeeded him from time to time to time in the appointment of Accountant General, on vacating Office; to grant testimonials to their Clarks. Consequently, I have none to produce from any of those Gentlemen. But the records of the Office will prove the regularity with which I attended business, and the advancement to my present position will be sufficient to prove the assiduity and attention with which I discharged my duties. Moreover, your personal knowledge of me altho' not for a very long period I trust is satisfactory.

4th I beg therefore to request that you will have the goodness to take my case into favorable consideration, and submit it to Government supported by your recommendation, for a pension on half of my present salary. I understand that in the case of reduction of certain Establishments for the purpose of increasing the printing operations therein, the Clerks whose services were dispensed with and who had served 20 years, or nearly 20 years, were pensioned upon one third of the salaries then drawn by them, and not on the average of the previous 5 years; the cases being considered special, as much as the parties were thrown out to meet arrangements for the convenience and benefit of Government.

98 5th My case is similar to that of those individuals, in as much as the abolition of the Government Agency is ordered by Government and will result in saving of expense to Government, and I earnestly hope that my case will meet with favorable consideration, and be disposed of in the same manner.

6th I beg to acknowledge, with the liveliest feelings of gratitude the many kindnesses I have received at your hands, and to remain

Respected Sir

Your most obedient and faithful Servant
