To
D. Dun Esqre
Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

Sir,

In submitting my application for permission to retire from the Honorable Company's Service I beg most respectfully to state the following circumstances with the humble hope that it will be sustained by your kind support.

In the year 1815 I was entertained as a writer in the Office of the Revenue Board, and continued as such until the year 1825, when Mr. Clarke the then Secretary to the Board promoted me to the situation of Dy. Accountant, on a Salary of 52½ Rupees.

In the same year, I was ordered to go with Mr. Russell then Member of the Bd. when he accompanied Sir Thomas Munro on a tour to visit the Western Provinces. The troubles, difficulties, and inconveniencies, to which I was subjected on this occasion, may be better conceived than expressed.

In the year 1835, the Honorable Dr. Elliott then 3d Member of the Board, was kindly pleased to promote me to the Office of Hd. Accountant on a Salary of 87½ Rupees.

In March 1854 an addition of 12½ Rupees was made to my Salary, making it to amount to Rupees 100.

My

So far as I have been able to ascertain, his incapacity has not been occasioned by Intemperance or other irregular habits
