Saint Magistrates Office
Cochin 19th October 1857

To Mr,

E. Mullin Esquire,

Saint Magistrate of Cochin

To

W. Robinson Esquire,

Acty. Magistrate of Malabar.

Sir,

I have considered it my duty to discharge from the service the Police Pems described in the accompanying List, in consequence of their unfitness for duty, from age and infirmity.

2. It was a painful task to me to discharge these old men - and I should be very glad if I could obtain a donation equal to six months' pay for each of them, under the rules published in Fort St. George Gazette 15th September 1857 Page 453.

3.

The Pems would appear to belong belong to the 5th Class of Public Servants specified in the rules.

4. May I beg you will have the goodness to give the case consideration.

I have &c
