dated 5th March 1854

Recd letter from the } Recd letter 3rd Feb 1854.
Collection of Census }
Recd also Report to Civil Auditor } Recd letter No 2755

In the foregoing letter the Collection of Census asks for two good service pensions - one on behalf of Mr. F. P. Noronha, his English Herald keeper - & the other for Mr. V. M. Pacheco - Asst ac-countant. Both these servants have been in the employ of Govt. for upwards of 37 years - and have, it is stated proved "highly useful in their day". Mr. F. P. Noronha is now desirous of replacing him by younger men, "who have enjoyed educational advantages which were never open to the applicants".

3. The Govt. officers have no good grounds have been shown for the grant of any special indulgence in these two cases.
If the applicants are now rendered inefficient by old age, medical testimony to that effect should be submitted, & superannuation pensions applied for in the usual way. The Examining Officer should be clearly informed of the nature & extent of the work applicants are called upon to perform, in order that he may judge whether they have vigour enough left to carry on the same in a satisfactory manner.
