The Civil Auditor has the honor to report, that the Authorized Official allowance of Ragavendra Rao Jansildar of the Mistragherry Talook on the Establishment of the Collector of Salem, for the last five years of his Service, is Rupees 100-0-0 per mensem, and that his Service under the Government entitling him to pension, embraces a period of 11 years and 7 months vizt: from 1st October 1844 to 30th April 1856.

As Rayavendra Row, was unemployed for upwards of a year prior to October 1844, owing, (as is reported by Mr. Cherry) to his voluntary resignation from the Service, his previous service is ineligible for computation in the period entitling to pension; and hence he is entitled to only a gratuity of 9 months' salary at Rupees 100-0-0 per mensem, amounting to Rupees 900-0-0.

1. This is an application for a one-third pension in favor of Raghu-vendra Rao, late Tahildar of Kistnargery, who is certified to be incapacitated for further ~~public~~ employment.
2. The Applicant has served altogether
for a period of 24 years & 10 months.
But these services have not been continuous, and the Civil Auditor points out that that rendered antecedently
to October 1844 only can be counted towards pension - vide the Honble Court's order of 15th August/55, No 75.
He is however eligible, it is stated,
to a gratuity equivalent to nine (11)
months' salary.
3. The Govt are of opinion that the late Tahildar is entitled, under the Rules,
to a gratuity of 13 months salary -
It has been ruled by the Honble Court that where a greater interval than one (1) year

The C. & Mend is all

occurs "between two periods of service" the servant forfeits his claim to count the first period towards his retiring pension, but this decision was never, ^{any} conceived, meant to be applied to the minor privilege of a gratuity upon retirement. The claim to the latter has never been held to be invalidated by reason of any interruption in continuity of service.

It is resolved, therefore, that under the operation of the Rules respecting gratuities to meritorious servants incapacitated for further employment, a sum of £1,300 (thirteen hundred rupees) being equivalent to 13 months pay at his present rate of salary be disbursed to the applicant.
