From

G. J. Beauchamp Esqre

Civil Judge of Comblaconum

To

J. Pycroft Esquire

Chief Secretary to Government

Fort Saint George

Sir,

An application founded on the grant of Gratuities to 2 Peons in the subordinate Court by Government under date the 5th February 1858 has been made to me by Chackra Aito, a Peon formerly on the Establishment of this Court who resigned in consequence of being incapacitated for further efficient service by old age and other infirmities on the 9th May 1856.

2

He was entertained in the late Zillah Court on the 1st August 1844 and maintained an unblemished

unblemished character throughout his lengthened service of 44 years, 9 months and 9 days, and I consequently beg to recommend that in accordance with Paras I and II of the Rules respecting Gratuities to discharged Servants (Section III) published in the Fort St. George Gazette for 1851 (No 23/5 Page 442) a Gratuity of Rupees (Rs.
4-0-0) sixty eight and Annas four being the amount of the salary enjoyed by him when he resigned for 13 months, may be granted to him.

I have the honor to be

Memorandum

The Civil and Session Judge has the honor, with reference to the Official Memo of the Deputy Secretary to Government dated 15th March 1858, to state that Chukra Naik was succeeded by his son, who has however to maintain his father and Mother, a sister and his own immediate family consisting of six souls, on a salary of 5 1/4 Rupees. The only property the family possesses is, as far as the Civil & Session Judge can ascertain, a house, valued at 300 Rs., and a few trinkets such as are ordinarily possessed by persons of their station in life. The Civil & Session Judge should add that the son had to give up a situation of 3 Rs. per Mensem to secure that of his father. —

It is moved that the Pension, on whose behalf the Civil Judge prefers an application for gratuity, left be service on the 9th May /56.

Well

2 - The rule is to refuse such applica-tions when made at such a distance of time from the termination of the applicant's employment - and, al-though he got leave on a former occa-sion consented not to enforce his rule strictly, they do not desire that his relaxation should be drawn into a precedent. They must therefore decline to accede to the present request.

Memo.

From C. J. of Con laconum 54
No 262 - 2/2^d March/58.

The civil Judge of Con laconum recommends for a gratuity under the old rules, a Person who resigned the service as far back as the 9th May 1856.

It is not usual to give gratuities on Pensions when the parties have left the service, especially for any length of time. Indeed it is prohibited by a standing order; and the old rules which empowered the local Govt. to dispose of such claims have been revoked. All applications for gratuity must be transferred to the Supreme Govt. & whereas the old rules allowed a donation of 13 months salary - the present rules admit only of one or two months?

But the Govt. was pleased to assign gratuities, notwithstanding, in the Proceedings marginally noted, to two old persons in his gift. The news has travelled from one Court to the other, probably.

* It may be worth while to reason about this measure. I mean on after Magt. can give a reward for the apprehension of a thief, or the killing a tiger!

It is observed that the Person, on whose behalf the C. J. prefers an applica-tion for gratuity, left the service as far back as the 9th May/56, and was then succeeded in his post by his son. If the applicant had been altogether without his own resources, the Govt. wd have been disposed to have released, in his case, the rule which prohibits the granting of gratuities except immediately on the resignation of the service by the party - But as it is they are constrained to refuse sanction to the recommendation made on his behalf.
