Comba Commr 18th March 1858.

Sir,

1. In recommending Pannasamy Saich, a late Person on the establishment of this Court, for a gratuity, I have the honor to state for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council that Pannasamy Saich served in this Court for about 25 years from the 16th October 1840 to 14th April 1855 when finding him old & incapable of active service, I removed him.

2. His conduct all along appears to have been good, as the Court diary contains nothing against him.

3. He appears to have been employed for 14 years before 1830 as a Batta Person of the Court a circumstance which, although it will not add to his service, yet, venture to submit, may fairly be taken into consideration in granting the gratuity.

4. With reference to Extract from the Minutes of Consultation dated the 5th February 1858, I beg to recommend for the favourable considerations of Government that under the gratuity rules of 1851 Section III Para 2^d Pannasamy Naick may be granted 6 months salary, at Rupees 5. 4-11-00 a month amounting to Rupees 31. 8-11-00.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

James
