Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application from Steenevassoorloo a Pensioner on the Establishment of the Grand Arsenal, praying that he may be allowed to remove from Madras and reside at Poonamallee, and to draw his pension from the Paymaster of the latter Station. In consideration of the reasons urged by Steenevassoorloo, I trust Government will be pleased to comply with his request, and direct a Pension Certificate to be granted him, in lieu of the one herewith enclosed, rendering the pension payable by the Pay Master at Poonamallee.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
