Trichinopoly Collectors
Office 28th July 1858
No. 15.

From J. Bird Esquire
Collector of Trichinopoly
To T. Pycroft Esquire
Chief Secretary
to Government
Fort St. George

Sir,

Para 1. At the instance of the applicant I have the honor to solicit the instructions of Government on the following Case.—

2. A Superannuation Pensioner by name Sami Dasen Pillery No. 1965, late Tahsildar of Arrealore talook in this District, drawing an allowance per Mensem of Rupees (22) twenty two from this Treasury, wishes to obtain employment as a private Schoolmaster to the Children of the Bandmen of the 34th Regiment

N.

7-58. the school in question is one of these.

N. I. quartered at Trichinopoly. The Salary to be Rupees (20) twenty the Month.

3 Is this to be considered "as a provision in life in any other "manner than the Government bounty." And will his taking such employ at twenty Rupees the Month reduce his pensionary stipend by so much?

4 The Officers of the 34th Regiment are willing to engage Sami Dasen Pillay, and he is equally ready to take the situation, if this point of loss of pension or otherwise be made clear, and the permission of Government be granted.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedient Servant.

Memo: Separate. Public Dept

Gen C. No 133 - d/23/5-54

These papers× relate to the Rule laid down in the Civil Auditor's Manual to the effect "that a "Superannuation Pension ceases on its being satisfactorily "established that the recipient is capable of gaining a "livelihood & consequently is not unfit for further service".

It will be seen that the man who had been pensioned at Rs 35 a month from the Bellary Collector's office, got made a Tahsildar on Rs 40 a month in the Raichore Doab, a country the revenues of which are administered by British officers, & accounted for to H. H. the Nizam.

2. It appears further that the objection lay in the fact of a Govt. Pensioner holding a Govt. appt. For, vide Para 8 of Mr Sim's Memo, a pensioned Govt. officer will still draw his pension when serving a foreign state.

3. The case, therefore, of a Govt. Pensioner holding office in a Charity School is clearly not a forbidden practice. I find that in most regts, the officers subscribe the means of keeping up a school (generally on Xtian principles) for the behoof of the children of drummers & fifers, who are East Indians, & the school in question is one of these.

Sami Dassu Pillay, a pensioned Tahsildar has had the offer of the post of Schoolmaster of a Charity School for the children of ×Bandsmen, maintained by the officers of the 34th N. I.; and the question is put, whether in accepting this offer he would forfeit his Pension.

Civil Auditor's Manual
Chap. XX Para 10.
× E. M. C.
23rd May 1854 No. 133.

2. The Government considers that he would not. The order that "a pension must cease on "its being shewn that the recipient is capable of gaining a "livelihood and consequently "is not unfit for further service", was passed in a very different case. There, a Translator who had been pensioned from the office of the Collector of Bellary, as being disqualified for active service, shortly afterwards obtained a Tahsildarship of Rs 40 a month in the Raichore Doab, and Government decided that his pension should cease from the date of his obtaining that employment.

3. It was clear in this case that if the party was equal to the duties of a Tahsildar in the Raichore Doab he could not have been disqualified for service as Translator in Bellary. But a man who has not health or strength enough for revenue or police employment may be able to perform light and sedentary work as a Schoolmaster, and his acceptance of such a situation consequently does not disprove his "unfitness for further service" in the revenue Depart.
