Office of Deputy Inspector General H. M. H.
Bangalore 15th December 1857

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that Peon Sooboorayen who had been in this Office since May 1840, during which period he has been a good and faithful servant, has now tendered his resignation alleging that the climate of Bangalore will not agree with his complaint (Asthma) I beg therefore you will have the goodness to submit his case for the favorable consideration of Government with the view of a gratuity being given him for his past services.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient
humble Servant.

Read the following letters

From the Dy. Adjt. Genl. H. M. Forces

Submitting a letter from the Dy: Inspector Genl. H. M. Hospitals, requesting to obtain the sanction of Govt. for the grant of a gratuity to Soobooroyen a peon on his establishment. Here enter 23d Decemr. 1857

Report of the Mily. Auditor Genl. — 12th January 1858

It is observed that peon Soobooroyen has tendered his resignation alleging that the climate of Bangalore does not agree with his complaint (Asthma) — this circumstance does not preclude his being re-employed elsewhere the Govt. therefore are unable to recognize his claim to a gratuity, he not being permanently disqualified for service.
