To The Principal Sudr Ameen of Chingleput

The Petition of Seetha-
-pathy Pillay Jarabinis of your Court.

Humbly Sheweth:

That your Petitioner was in January 1829 first entertained in the Service of Government as Peetwan; that in 1831 he was promoted to the office of 3rd Goomastah on a salary of 4 Pagodas which was afterwards increased to 5 Pagodas & subsequently to the office of 2nd Goomastah to the Sheristadar on a salary of 6 Pagodas; that, on the Establishment of this Court in September 1843, your Petitioner was appointed 2nd Goomastah on a salary of Rs. 17½ and in 1849 was made head Goomastah on a salary of Rs. 21; that during the period that your Petitioner held these several offices he was engaged

Engaged in the discharge of the duties of the Record room; that in the Current Month the Court has been pleased to promote him to the office of Sarabnivis, that being now 58 years of age debilitated in Constitution and having a tremor in his hands your Petitioner feels unable to discharge the duties of his Office: he therefore prays that your honor will favorably regard the Case of a poor man and be pleased to recommend that the Superannuation pension be granted to him.—

This is to Certify that I have examined Seethapathy Pillay Sarabnivis in the Principal Sudder Ameens Court & find that he is incapable of further service in consequence of having Incipient Cataract of both eyes, general debility and nervousness of the system.

The above is not the result of his own imprudence but that of age & a general breaking up of the system.
