Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

1. I am directed by the Judges of the Sudder Udalut to forward the accompanying letter from the Civil Judge of Mangalore, dated the 20th Ultimo, recommending the grant of a gratuity to Annapaya the Head Goomastah attached to the District Moonsiff's Court at Poottoor.

2. As Annapaya is reported to have borne a good character during his long period of service, and is now incapacitated by old age and infirmity

infirmity, I am desired to recommend that a gratuity of 6 months pay amounting to Rs 60 may be granted to him.-

The Register to the Court of Sudder Adalut
Fort St. George.

Sir,

1. Annappaya the Head Gomashta attached to the District Moonsiffs Court at Pootoor in this Zillah having from old age and infirmities become unfit for further service, has tendered his resignation and presented an application to this Court requesting that recommendation may be made to Government for the grant of a gratuity under revised Rules of 27th November 1857- The Petitioner has served in different Courts since 1817, or a period of more than 40 years, but as previous to 1835 the Moonsiffs' Establishments had had scarcely a recognized existence, his official career must date from that period and be calculated at 23 years. His pay for the last 11 years was 10 Rs, and as far as I can discover his character appears to have been good throughout his service. In consideration of the above circumstances I have the honor to recommend that an application may be submitted to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to grant him a gratuity of 6 months' pay amounting to 60 Rupees.

A statement of his services is herewith submitted.

Report of the Civil Auditor.

The Civil Auditor has the honor to report that in consequence of the names of the Goomastahs employed in the District Moonsiff's Court of Pootoor on the Establishment of the Civil Court of Mangalore, not appearing hitherto in the returns furnished to the Audit Office, he is unable to verify the service of Ammapaya. As the pay of Ammapaya is Rupees 10 and Mr. Chatfield reports that he has been employed for a period of 22 years, 11 months and 24 days is entitled to a gratuity under the new Rules.
