Commisary General's Office
Madras 28th January 1858.

From N^o. 18.
To The Commisary General
The Chief Secretary to Government.
Fort St. George.

Sir,

21st May 1851.

With reference to Clause 8 of the "General Rules N^o. II for Civil Pensions of every description," I have the honor to report for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, that Pensioner Menkatachellum holding Certificate N^o. 2097 has not been able to proceed to Cuddalore from Cuddapah to draw his stipends, but is desirous to remain at the latter Station where he has been residing for some years past. Should His Lordship in Council have no objection, I beg leave respectfully to request that the stipends may be made payable from the Civil Treasury at Cuddapah, for which purpose the Certificate is herewith returned for alteration.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant,

A. Mally Colonel
Com^d. General.
