Kindly shewth

That your petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs leave to bring to your Honours kind notice that the leave of absence granted him for the recovery of health, expires on the 20th Instant. The cutaneous eruption on his breast and belly, of which he has been complaining for the last so many months, has now apparently ceased; and the nature of the climate he has been since enjoying has enabled him to better his health gradually. But he regrets that the disease which was lingering and bad, and which appears to have taken deep root in him, has so weakened his constitution that he feels himself disqualified for further efficient service. He cannot write, his hands shake; and in short his health depends upon the climate he may enjoy and the air he breathes at Madras is so disagreeable to the state of his body that a few days stay here only renders the nature of his indisposition worse. Under these reasons, your petitioner has no hope of returning to his duty.

Your petitioner has a large family consisting of ten souls depending on him for support and the small salary of $1000.00 which he has

as well as of the dependence of ten souls on him for support, he pleased to permit him to retire from service on a pension at least equal to two thirds of his pay if not full in a special case and confirm in his duty his nephew C. Appaswamy who has been on your honors permission acting for him for the last 16 months. He prosecuted his studies in Mr. Anderson and Patchiappa's Institution and finally in the Presidency College. His qualifications and conduct will be borne out by Copies of Testimonials herin enclosed for your honors kind perusal.

Your petitioner further begs to request your honors pardon for his liberty and to solicit your honor with consideration of his unhappy and indigent circumstances, be pleased to support his case specially and comply with his prayers as the late Secretaries did to your Petitioners ancestors.

For which act of justice, grace, and indulgence, your honors petitioner will ever continue to offer up his ardent and incessant prayers to the Almighty God, for your honors long life and increasing prosperity and your honors petitioner as in duty bound,

17th November
1857

I shall ever pray
C. Appaswamy.

Patchiappa's Institution

Madras 17th April, 1851.

This is to certify that C. Appaswamy was a Pupil of this Institution for a period of 3 years during which time the course of instruction that he passed through (including the studies of the 4th or highest class) embraced the following Readings in Prose and Poetry, Portions of the Histories of England, Rome, and India; General Geography with a few Problems on the Terrestrial Globe; Grammar; Arithmetic as far as Cube Roots; the first Book of Euclid; Algebra as far as Quadratics; and the Elements of Astronomy.

He possesses a ~~very~~ fair knowledge of English and Tamil and has also made a creditable progress in composition and reciprocal translations from English and Tamil and I have no doubt that he will make himself useful in the situation which he may be called upon to fill.

Samy B. Lowry
Principal

In pursuance of the notice published by me in the Port of Saint George Gazette dated 7th November 1855, C. Appaswamy appeared as a Candidate and passed a very fair examination although

Sir

With reference to the order of Government conveyed in the Public Department, requesting the Medical Board to examine and report upon the state of health of C. A. Gra-sarah Writer in the Government Office, I have the honor by desire of the Medical Board to acquaint you, that no improvement in his general health has resulted from the leave of absence granted to him, on the contrary he has considerably fallen off during the last six months, and the Board consider him permanently disqualified for further effective duty, from general impaired health, and obstinate cutaneous disease, which disability the Board believe is not attributable to intemperance or other irregular habits
