Sir,

With due deference and Submission, I beg have most respectfully to request you will be pleased to recommend me to Government for Superannuation Pension, according to the Rules now in force.

I was entertained in this Office in the month of April 1833 as Accountant in the Pension Department, in which situation I still continue - My present Salary is Rupees 35, 00 00 monthly. Being 55 years old, I have been suffering for the last few months under the effects of general debility incident in old age. Moreover, in consequence of the close attention, both mental and ocular, which I was necessitated by the nature of my duties to pay in the performance of my work, my sight has been so much impaired that I am unable to discharge my duties as satisfactorily as I could wish.

I

I therefore humbly solicit the favor of your permitting me to retire on a Pensionsary provision from the 15th of this month.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
