Translation of an Mrgee addressed by Rungo Soobaroo late Tahsildar of the Dharmavaram Talook.

To C. Pelly Esq
Collector of Bellary
Sir

You were pleased to issue an order suggesting that it would be prudent in me, being incapacitated by old age, to retire from the service honorably, and thinking it right to act according to your wishes, I have resigned my situation of Tahsildar. I took the liberty of soliciting you personally in regards to procuring me a pension, and you were pleased to direct me to submit a written es-petition on the subject, in doing which I beg to subjoin a Memo of my services.

Mr Campbell was pleased years in S.

In this manner I served continuously for many years till by the instigation of my enemies certain Village authorities preferred complaints against me when I was at Lodecondah the second time as Tahildar - which you enquired into as Sub Collector and awarded punishment of a fine of one thousand Rupees and suspension from Office for a term of three years with a provision of being re-entertained after the expiration of that period - And Mr. Melton who was then Collector believing the charge against me to have been brought through pique reversed the decision awarding only suspension for a short period also making a provision for my re-entertainment after its expiration - which however the Board of Revenue overruled and ordered my dismissal but on my petitioning the Board on the subject they were pleased to sanction my re-entertainment by an endorsement to that effect on my petition whereupon you were pleased to grant me a Tahsil
- darship and the following is a Memo of my service since my re-entertainment.

intermediate period during which I was out of employ and to have forfeited my title of pension. Your servant has for many years lived respectably holding high office and his grand father having also held the appointment of Tahsildar for some time from the commencement of this British administration Your servant acquired honour by a faithful discharge of his public duties and was favored with testimonials of certain gentlemen three of which Nos 1-2 and 3 you have approved and made mention of in your order No 153 and Mr. Robertson pleased with my character made mention of it in his order No 2. I beg to submit these five documents herewith. You are aware of their worthiness and I humbly beg you will be pleased to procure for me a Pension equal to a moiety of my salary for my long services according to the rules for Pension of the 15th May 1857. I understand that the Honorable Court of Directors have in their despatch of the 15th August 1855 ruled that discharged servants if not re-entertained within the space of a year forfeit their claim to count the first periods of service towards the retiring pension but this rule can affect only those servants who have entered entered service since its promulgation and cannot be applied to the case of an old servant like myself as the rule is of recent date while my long services extend for back. I beg therefore you will be pleased to take my case into your kind consideration and submit it as a special case for the favourable consideration of Government and thus obtain for me a Pension and I beg also that the enclosure may be returned to me after your perusal.

Fort Saint George

Sir
I have the honor to submit a translation of a Petition presented to me by Amgo Soobarow a late Tahsildar, who from old age has been required to resign his situation, and who now makes application for a Pension, but who having been once dismissed for misconduct, cannot according to the Rules, claim this indulgence. Whether he may claim a gratuity is the question I wish to submit for the orders of Government. Soobarow served the Government for a period of ^{years 22-5-9} 22-5-9. He was then removed from his situation of Tahsildar, and remained unemployed for a period of ^{y. 8m 0} 4-9-9 and was then again entertained as a Tahsildar and served in that capacity for nearly 8 years, when he resigned his situation. The total period of his services was therefore ^{y. 8m 0} 30-4-6 in the several situations as annexed

2. The circumstances under which Loobarow was removed from the Government employment and again reinstated were as follows. Whether at the instigation of his enemies (as he says) or not it is not very material to enquire. But he was charged in the year 1844 with making unauthorized collections from the people for his own use, and convicted by the Sub Collector, who sentenced him to 3 years suspension and fine. This decision was overruled in appeal by the Collector, who recommended that Loobarow should be suspended for a time. The Board of Revenue directed (13th October 1845) his removal from office but in an endorsement on a Petition presented by Loobarow, left it to the discretion of the local authorities to re-employ Loobarow. The collector under all the circumstances of Loobarow's case, as an act of grace restored Loobarow to Office in 1849.

3. Loobarow was thus out of employ for 5th 2-16 and was thus severely punished

No 2146 of 1847

deprived with loss of Salary and loss of Pension.

4. Since his restoration to office there has been nothing against him to merit a loss of Pension, but by the intermediate dismissal, he has forfeited his claim to that indulgence. After serving for a further period of about 8 years he has become incapacitated for the active duties of Sahildar, which situation he filled for 23 years of his Service, and I was obliged to require him to resign his situation. He was informed that he could not expect a Pension, but that his claim for a small gratuity would be taken into consideration, and I would now submit for the decision of Government whether Loobarow may, under the circumstances of his case, be permitted to receive a small gratuity of 6 months salary. I have no doubt whether I am altogether justified in submitting the proposition for

for the consideration of Government. but as Loobarow is an old servant of Government and has actually served upwards of 30 years, and has now been compelled by old age and incapacity to retire from the Service, I have thought it fair to him to lay his case before Government and to forward his Petition for their orders.

5. I should state that Loobarow's resignation dates from the 5 September 1857.

I have the honor to be
