Ramesh Bramin has been employed under my orders as Head Journal Writer from 1st March 1834 to 21st August 1830 in the Pay Office at Bangalore and during that period. I have always found him a most intelligent Accountant as well as most attentive to all his public duties and well acquainted with the whole routine of business in a Pay Office.

Akumiah Abraham
has served uninterruptedly in the Pay Office at Bangalore from 1st June 1820 to the present time making a total period of service of 38 years and 5 months - On the 1st August 1841 he was appointed to the head of the Office as Manager in which responsible situation and during the whole of his service he has faithfully and efficiently discharged his duties to the State -

During this long and uninterrupted period of upright faithful & efficient service not a single error, not an attempt at dishonesty has occurred in this office.
It is with regret that I part with this good & faithful servant, but he has most deservedly earned his good service pension and it is right he should be permitted to pass the remainder of his days in quiet.

It is a consolation and satisfaction to me to be enabled thus publicly to record my admiration of his high character, his honesty, his efficiency, and devotion to his duties to Government.

the liberty to bring my long service in this Office, as below particularized, will be good enough to do me the favor of referring the same with your recommendation, to the liberal Consideration of Government, and obtaining permission for me to retire from the service on Pension equal to half of my Pay (agreeably to Circular No. 186 dated 21st July 1854) from 1st January 1859.

I was employed on the 1st June Head Accountant or Manager, on the 1st August 1841, at which post I now am, making total period of Service 38 years and 5 months, with age of 54 years and six months.

I regret I cannot produce testimonials from all of my Employers but one with which I was favored by Major (now Major General) Coffin (unsolicited) as it was not usual for the Clerks in this Office to ask their Employers for testimonials when when they continued in the Service -

I trust my continuing in the same Office and gradual promotion from the foot to the Head will prove the faithful and efficient discharge of my duties during the period of had the charge of this Office vizt. since services speak for themselves, and are a bright example to those who will permein after him.
