To Major J. H. Bell
Mint Master

Respected Sir,

I very respectfully to submit these few lines for your kind Consideration trusting that your kind support will not be denied to an old servant who has been employed in the Mint in the Service of Government for upwards of 35 years as will fully appear by the enclosed Testimonials.

I beg to appeal to your generous feelings that I am incapable to do the situation as before any longer, under your auspicious Control, owing to

to my health having been very much impaired by the consumption.

I am deprived of all the means for my support as well as the large family so fully dependent on me.

I am thus invariably compelled to solicit your will in consideration of my long service rendered me to the Dignity of Government for Pension or Gratuity.

I beg to remain

Respected Sir,

Yours most obedt. Servt

Gentlemen,

Para 1st I have the honor of enclosing a Petition with a Medical Certificate from Rungiah Gollah on the Mint Establishment and beg you will favorably recommend him to Government for a Gratuity of Rupees 60, equivalent to his salary for six Months.

2^d In November 1817 Rungiah entered the Mint as a Contingent Feeder boy, he afterwards served as a Peon, and was appointed a Gollah, in which situation he has acquitted himself well, being always regular in his attendance and faithful in the discharge of his duties during his 41 Years Service.

3. At the abolition of the Mint in in 1836 a gratuity of 42 Rupees was given to this Gollah, and on its re-establishment in 1841 he was restored to his place.

I have the honor to be

I hereby certify that I have ex- amined Ramgiah, employed in the Mint as Gollah, and find that he is unfit for fur- ther service. His present condition has not been produced by intemperance so far as I am aware and I believe it the result of advancing age and infirmity.
