From

M. Murray Esquire

Collector of Muddapah,

To J. D. Sin Esquire

Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Sir,

Fort-Saint George

I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Board of Revenue that Chellaparasomal Moodaly, Deputy Moosehy of my Office, has applied to me for permission to retire from the service, from old age & sickness by which his constitution has been considerably weakened.

On his appearing before the Officiating Zillah Surgeon, that officer granted him a Certificate of disqualification which is enclosed for the information of the Board. Chellaparasomal Moodaly's age is now 60 years, and his actual period of service amounts only to 18 1/2, altho 13 years prior to this period, he was employed in assisting the only Moosehy then on the Establishment by receiving Rupees 7 a month from his pay which of course, cannot be included in his service.

Chellaparasomal

Chellaparamal Moorthy does not belong to that class of servants who are entitled to Pension, but as he is an old servant, very poor and had performed his duties with attention, I beg leave to lay his case for the favorable consideration of the Board and to recommend him for a gratuity of a 12 months salary, which will amount to Rupees 120, the salary of the Moorthy being Rupees 10 per mensem.

I have the honor to be
