To J. Pycroft Esq.
Chief Secretary to Government

Sir,
Fort St. George

The pension granted to the sons of the late Beema Row, Head sarishtadar of North Arcot, was extended to their descendants of one generation in a letter from the Honorable Court of Directors dated the 18th of May 1842, and with reference to this extension, I have now the honor to report the death, on the 3^d ultimo, of Streenuwasa Row, one of the sons of

Beema Row

Beema row, and as the name of his cousin who has been adopted by the deceased Streenevapa row should now be substituted in the Certificate held by him, I beg to forward the same in order that the necessary alterations may be made.

Paternal line:
