Dold. Allahabad, the 10th May 1859.

General. 3

Sir,
In reply to your letter No 317, dated the 13th November last, I regret to have to inform you that no information can be obtained in this Presidency regarding the alleged service of Shahasrow in the Barool Post Office Establishment from 1817 to 1825.

2. The Civil Auditor N. W. P., the Commissioner Subbulpore, and the Civil Auditor Bengal have been successively addressed on the subject, but without result, the last named officer in his reply, just received, suggests a reference to the Bombay Audit Office in which, he says, the accounts of the Barool Post Office are passed.

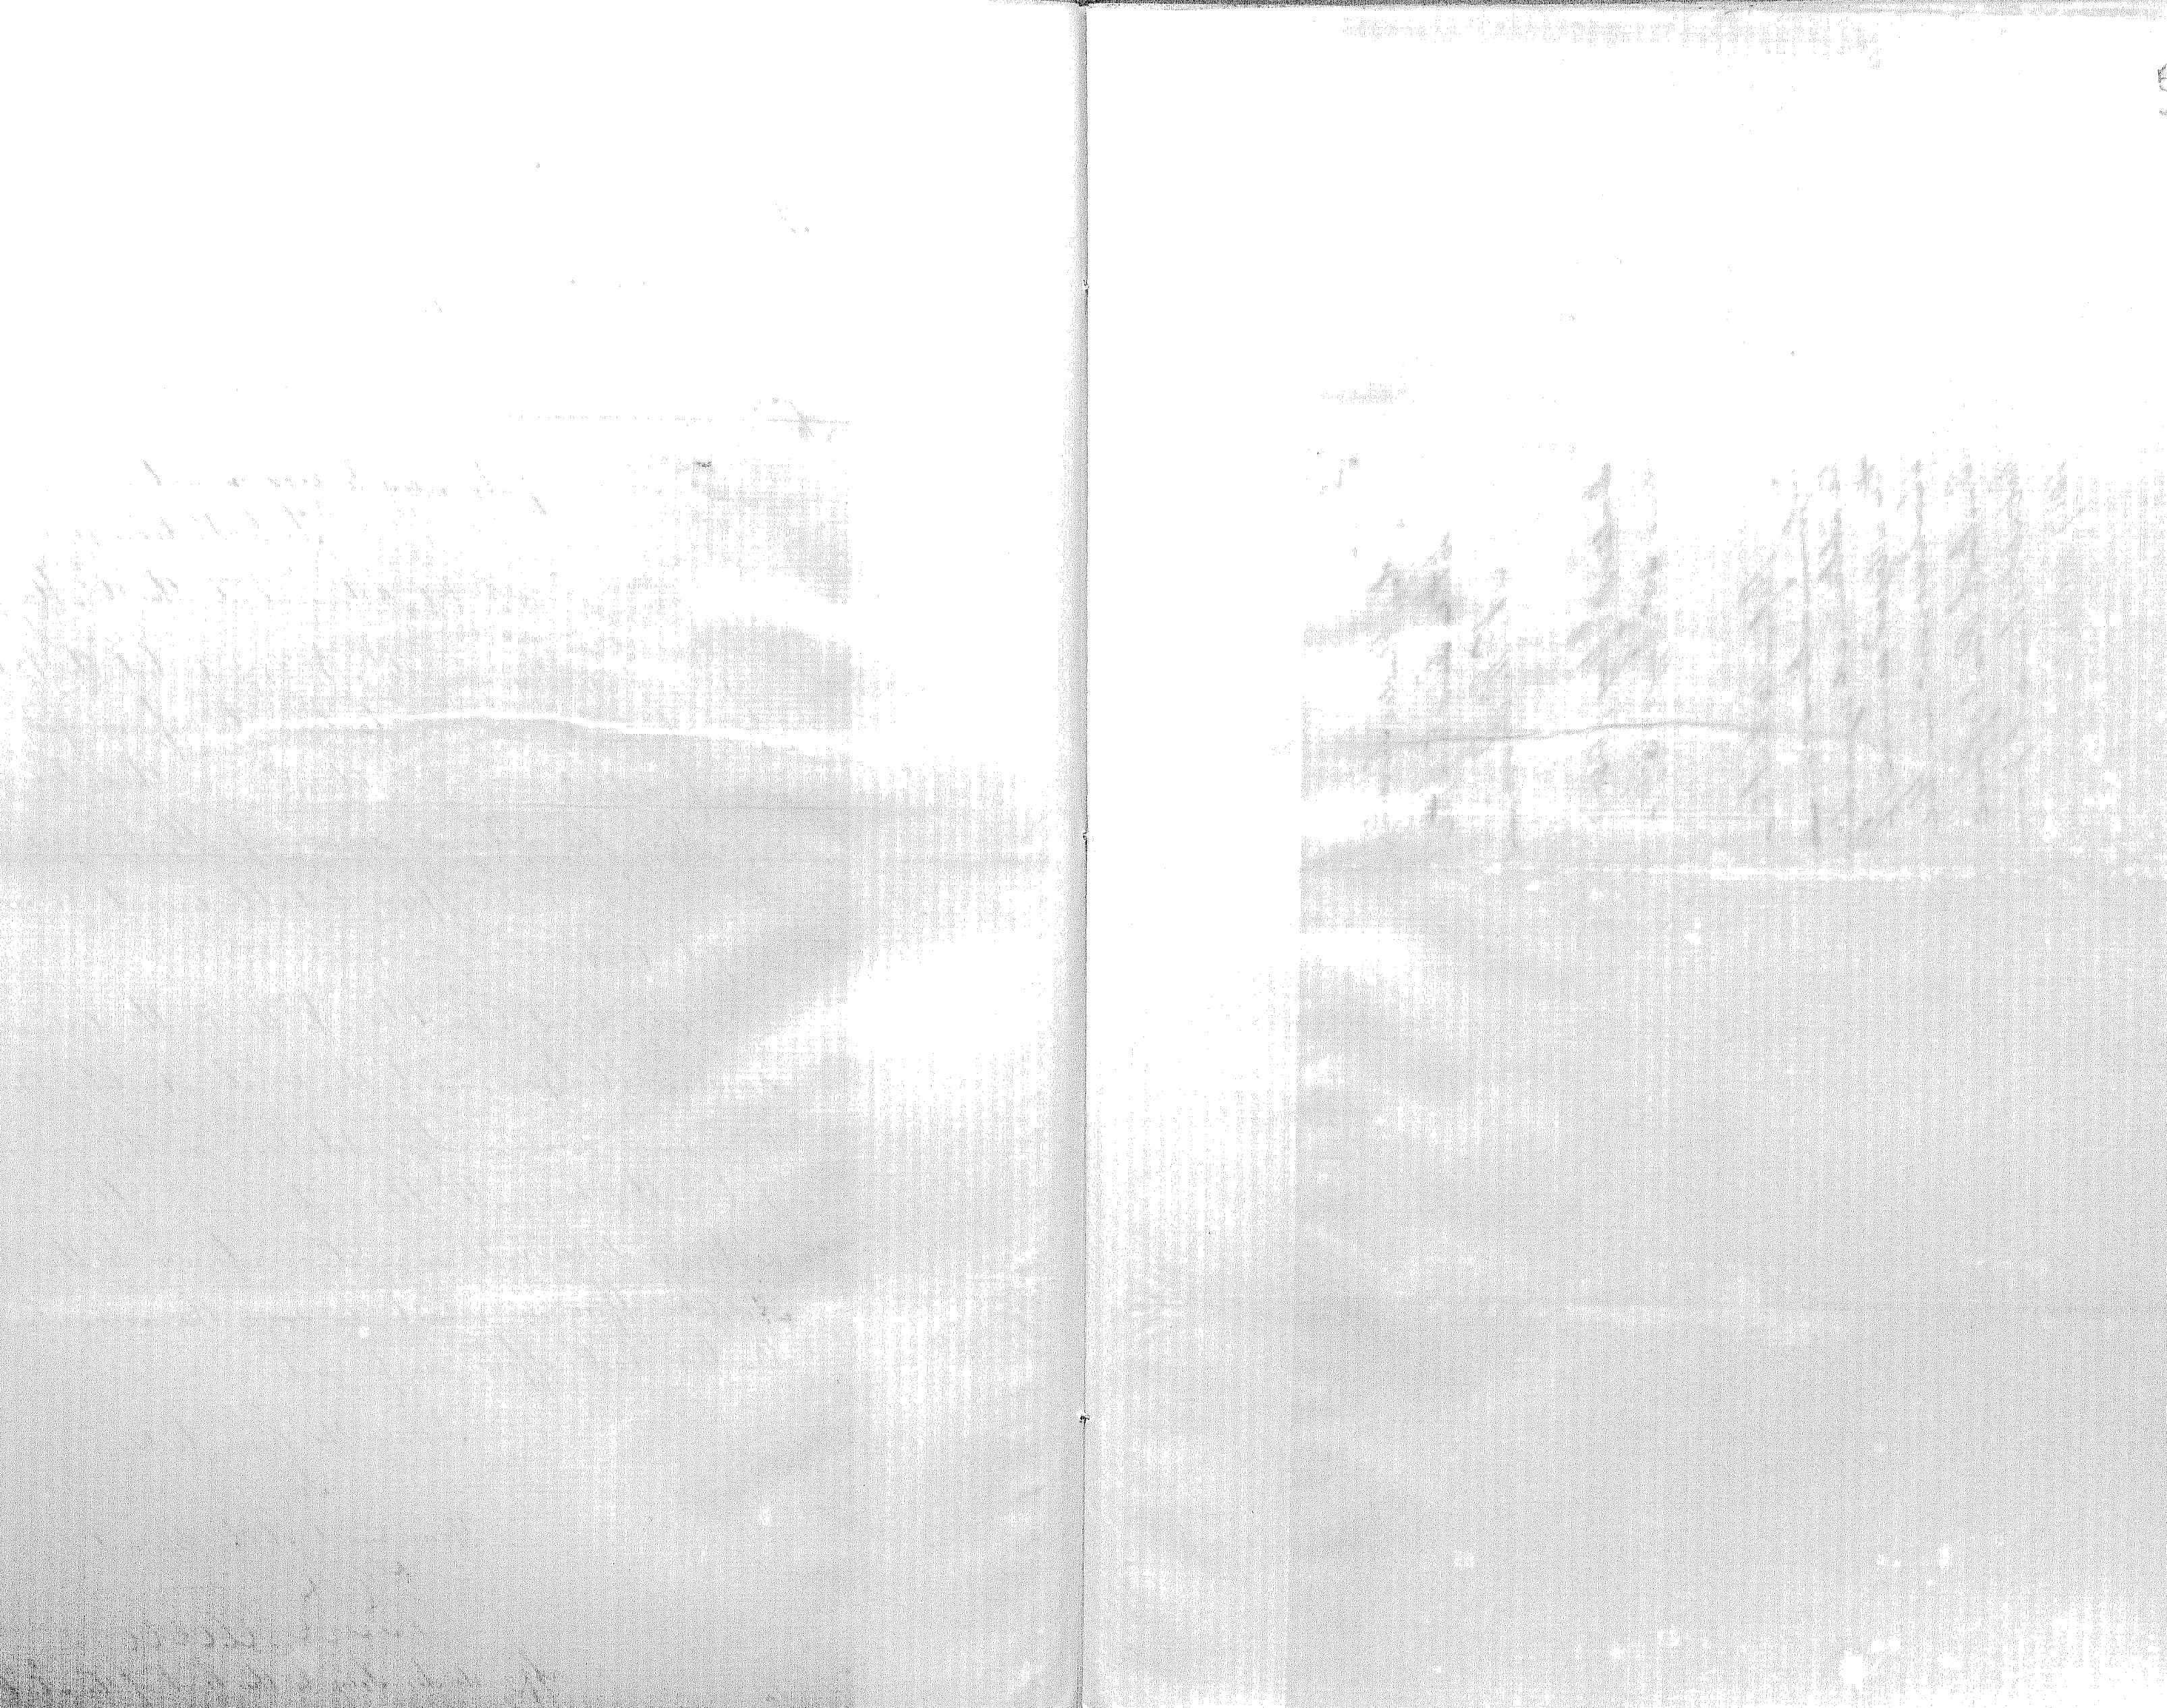

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,
