W. Holloway Esquire,

Sub Judge of Calicut.

The Humble Petition of Thomas Gwynn, late Sailor of Calicut.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your Petitioner was appointed Sailor at this Station in January 1840 and served as such until his relief in December 1853 except for a period of nearly two years which he passed on leave at Madras some time after his appointment. That his actual service extends over a space of 17 years, during which he discharged his duties to the entire satisfaction of his employers.

That your Petitioner introduced and maintained discipline in the Sail and exercised the Arms then employed in blunt and ball firing in order to render them as useful as possible on any emergency.

3. That when the expediency of having the Jail quarters in the vicinity of the Jail was determined upon in 1842, the money allowed by Government for the purpose was only a hundred Rupees, but your Petitioner drawing this amount, applied all his energy and efforts ^{forwards} to the attainment of the desired object without any further expense to Government, and succeeded in having a neat and substantial building constructed, which is now worth no less than a thousand Rupees, to say nothing of the rent which it once yielded to Government during his absence at the rate of Rs 5 per month.

4. That there are in the Jail various improvements the result of his endeavors which afford ample evidence of the deep interest he always took in every thing relating to its sanitary condition.

5. That on the occasion of Mr. Conolly's assassination a disturbance in the Jail was apprehended, as the majority of the convicts then in custody who numbered about 500, were men of the most turbulent and desperate character. But your Petitioner stimulated the Peons under his control to increased vigilance, and by every means in his power created a feeling of dread in the convicts themselves which deterred them from committing the slightest breach of the peace.

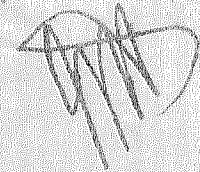

6. That your Petitioner maintained a degree of influence over the Prisoners which none of his Predecessors possessed. When a body of them attacked the late Jemadar of the Jail with the evident design of doing him some grievous bodily injury, they desisted from violence the moment they heard his voice on the spot.

7. That when your Petitioner assumed charge of the Jail the system as regards the work to be exacted from the convicts was extremely defective. He effected a change which rendered them perfectly capable of earning their livelihood honestly after their release. Some of them were taught masonry, others weaving, carpentry &c. Even the Bandies, wheel barrows, and tools used in the Jail were made by themselves.

8. That your Petitioner notwithstanding the utter inadequacy of his pay of 20 Rs did never evince the least slackness in the conduct of his duties especially in critical times, and altho' he was disappointed in his hopes of obtaining the higher salary of 50 Rs sanctioned by Government on the 27th March 1857 he continued in his post with a cheerful heart until his relief in December 1858 from a confidence that his long and faithful services will meet with a kind and favorable consideration from Government. Under these circumstances, and and as a retired Simadar of the Sail received a gratuity equal to a year's pay for his services.

Your Petitioner most respectfully lays this address before you, and craves the favor of your submitting it with your kind recommendation to higher authority in view to a gratuity being bestowed on him, for which act of kindness he shall as in duty bound, Ever Pray

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward to you Mr Gwynn's application for a donation - You will perhaps consider it proper to give his application your support. I do not know that he was more inefficient than the majority of the old class of Jailors & his compulsory retirement in consequence of the greatly increased requirements which your orders have enjoined seems to entitle him to the consideration of Government.
Of course his statement of his own merits is of a highly poetical character, but I am well aware that it is never the wish of the Government to deal harshly or ungenerously with an old servant and particularly with one who, whatever his shortcomings as a gaoler, was once a brave and efficient soldier.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

I have the honor to forward an application on behalf of Mr. Gwynne the Surgeon of Calicut for a gratuity on discharge.

2. The application is not made on Medical grounds but that the appli-cant is not qualified for the post he has so long filled.

3. I had occasion on first visiting the Calicut Sail to express my dissatis-faction with this officer, he has since been under much more strict control and may not as Mr. Holloway remarks be efficient than some others in similar situations, he can not however read and write so as to conduct his proper duties and I did not consider that in other respects his qualifications compen-sated for this deficiency.

4. The Government will observe that this officer's salary has not been increased and that it is now proposed that he should receive a Gratuity calculated at 6 months' salary at the rate of 20 Rupees.

5. I would beg that the application be complied with and that Mr. Sanyal should receive 120 Rs. on retirement.

Report of the Civil Auditor

Mr.
The Civil Auditor has the honor to report, that in consequence of the name of the sailor employed in the Gaol of Calicut, not appearing hitherto in the Return furnished to the Audit Office by the Subordinate Judge of Calicut, he is unable to verify the services of Mr. Guyon. As the pay of Gaoler is Rs 20-0-0 per mensem, and Mr. W. Holloway, the Subordinate Judge of Calicut, states that he has been employed for a period of 14 Years 3 Months and 15 Days, he is entitled only to a Gratuity under the new rules.
