He trusts that his length of service as a Maistry will constitute a good claim to the consideration of Government for a gratuity similar to that already granted to others.

Sir,

In reply to the enquiry of Government forwarded with Extract from your proceedings No. 9678. 19th April 1859, I have the honor to inform you that the 2 individuals as per the margin, do not appear to have applied for either pension or gratuity under the idea that they were likely to be shortly reemployed in the same situations.

They have done some service, quite worth their pay from the Estimates since; but Harris & Adams has now utterly broken down, and has not attended for some little time past; the other man is still at work, as a bricklayer & masonry on the Military buildings.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant.

Referring to the Memorandum from the Deputy Secretary to Government, dated 15th April last, I have the honor to state, for the information of Government, that the District Engineer of Pichinsopoly reports, that Marcedas and Veeramally did not apply for either Pension or Gratuity, under the impression that since done some service, being paid out of the Estimates
