This is to Certify, that I have examined Mr J. A. Nasor, Sub manager of Sea Customs of this Port, & that I find him in a debilitated state of health, resulting from old age, bleeding piles and Rheumatism, which are not attributable to intemperance or other irregular habits, and that ^{consider} no material benefit, is likely to result from relaxation from duty and medical treatment, but that he is permanently disqualified from further active employment.

Francis Antony Rafe has served Sd^o for 32 years + 15 days. This service is not however continuous.

The period from 1st Oct. 1823. to 18th Feb. 1824 is stated to have been passed as English Rafe under the head Apist^o at Palghat. Neither the Collector nor Civil Auditor's records can verify this.

A second break of 6 years or from 16th Jan. 1825. to 1st Feb.
1831. was caused by Rafe's leaving
