Sir,

I have the honor to state, that I have found it absolutely necessary to remove from his situation, "Karcayana Rau," a Kaikun in the Taalluk of Tirukkatur in this District, in consequence of his having become quite incapacitated by reason of his old age and bodily weakness, from performing his duties.

2.

He is sixty years old, and has been forty years in the

the employment of Government, during which time he has borne a good character and has been a faithful servant.

3. Altho' he has been so long in the Public Service, he has only been for the last eight years a Karkun, on 10.
Rupees a month, and cannot therefore claim a Pension. - If he had a son or an heir fit for employment, I would have given him a suitable situation, but he has neither, so that it only remains for me to submit his case for the favourable consideration of His Excellency the Governor or Council, & to recommend, in reference to the order of Government N^o 1337, dated 22nd December 1857, that a gratuity of six months salary, which would amount, at the rate of 10 Rs. a month, to 60 Rupees, may be granted to him upon his retirement.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
