To The Civil Session Court of Mellore

The humble petition of Gangire Naray Moohy attached to the Civil Session Court of Mellore.

Sheweth.

That gone petitioner has been carefully and diligently discharging the duties appertaining to his office, for the last 30 years. In the late Jillah Court, he had been drawing $14\frac{1}{2}$ & $10\frac{1}{2}$ Rupees respectively for some time. After the establishment of the new Jillah Courts, his salary was reduced to 7 Rupees per mensem. As he is suffering from disease and incapacitated for further service, and as the existing Rules of the Government exclude him from the privilege of Superannuation Pension. He most respectfully begs gone Court will, in Consideration

Consideration of his period of long service be pleased to recommend him for a gratuity & thus protect him.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit to be laid before His Excellency the Governor in Council, translation of an order from Canizary Narsu, the Mooshy attached to the Civil and Session Court, praying that a gratuity may be granted him.

Canizary Narsu, of Jonegiri caste, Siva sect, is aged upwards of 60 years and has served the Government for 45 years and 2 months as apparent from the Records of this Court. He submits his application for a gratuity, as being incapable of of further service owing to infirmities attendant upon old age.

3. It appears from the Records of the Court that he was appointed in June 1818 on a salary of Rupees 14, which was reduced by the Government in 1836 to Rupees 10 1/2, and after the establishment of the present Courts in 1843 it was further reduced to Rupees 7 in the receipt of which he is at present.

In consideration of his general good conduct the very protracted period of his actual service, and the reductions in salary suffered by him, without fault, on his part I would beg to recommend that 6 months salary be granted him as a gratuity as a special case.
