old. He has been labouring under severe and protracted illness since the last 5 months, and is now very weak and unable to move except with assistance. The Medical Officer declares him to be unfit for further service as will appear from the accompanying Certificate.

3. It appears that he was under temporary suspension from Office for 20 months in consequence of some irregularities on his part in making an investigation into a Police Case.

4. If under these circumstances he is considered to be a proper object for the bounty of Government, the amount he is entitled to as pension will be Rupees 28-5-4, being one third of his average pay according to the Rules from the 26th December 1858, the date of his application -
