MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Pension DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No.	710	~~Press~~ Mis.
Dated	18-2	18 59.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

To The Head Magistrate in the Zillah of Masulipatam

Arjee addressed by Rahimannab inhabitant of Nimbore in the Santoor District at present residing at Begoarak.

1 My late husband Syed Mahomed had formerly, for a considerable time, held service under the Company's Government and separated this life. Then, the former Gunttoor, in consideration of our circumstances, and perceiving that there were no heirs left but me & settled on me a monthly Pension of Rupees 2 for my subsistence, and granted a Certificate in my name in No. 2596. dated 15th May 1819. Ever since up to this time I am in the uninterrupted receipt of the pension of Rupees 2 per month, the same having been paid to me in the Talook Cutcherry of the Begoarak Tahasildar in this Masulipatam District.

2 What I now beg leave to represent to your honor is that, I am grown old and being deprived of the full power of vision & am affected with rheumatic pains in my legs & hands, & having no one to support me, I am undergoing much trouble coming & going to Begoarak. It is difficult for me to reside at Begoarak, there being no house for me to live in, nor any body to protect me.

3 I therefore pray your honor who is the emblem of charity, will after taking my prayer into a valuable consideration, be pleased to recommend to the Government so that the pension payable to me (a very old & sick female) may continue to be paid to me through the Collector Cutcherry of the Gunttoor District or in the Talook Cutcherry of the Ammalagaherry Tahasildar & protect me a poor & helpless female by granting my request.
21st September 1858.
