Sir, - Fort Saint George

1 I beg to lay before you for your instructions the case of Kasi Rao, Tahsildar of Kamlapur. -

2 He has now served continuously for 35 years & 4 months in various grades, and all at rates of pay which count for Pension; and is consequently entitled, by length of service, to apply for a good service pension. He is moreover physically capable of further service for a space of 5 or 6 years - His mental capacity, however, is such that he ought to be pensioned at once - Before being promoted to his present situation, he had been Head Jinnasta in the Sheristadar's kitchen for upwards of 8 years, and he had filled the post satisfactorily - Beyond this, or a similar subordinate situation, he ought not to have been promoted, as he is quite incompetent to fill such a situation as that of Tahsildar. He has neither energy nor decision of character; and in the taluk he has not the slightest authority from the manner in which he allows even his own subordinates to domineer over him - The ryots of Kamlapur are rather a troublesome set, and require a man of determination to keep them in order. To this Kasi Rao is quite unequal for they deride his authority.

I believe that, apart from a little indolence, he fills his post to the best of his ability such as it is; and he has the character of being an honest man; but to continue such a person in the responsible office of Tahildar is neither for the good of the Government nor for the benefit of his own Character. The only remark which Mr Murray has made against his name in the public register, beyond noting one or two fines for want of punctuality, is "fit for pension". -

3 The rules regarding the grant of good service pensions would not, I think, bear me out in applying for me for him, and yet I should be loth to dismiss or reduce him, because I see that he has been placed in a false position: in a place the duties of which he never was capable of discharging. -

4. I shall therefore feel obliged if you will inform ^{me} whether, on the view of his case which I have given, an application for good service pension from Kasi Rao would be favorably considered by Government. -

3. The fact do not however consider that the conditions on which good service pensioners are granted have been fulfilled in Pet's case. Un-exceptionable testimonials of a faithful of duties ^{are} required, declared that such pensioners are rewards for good service and are not in any case claimable as of right.

stating that from ~~mental~~ mental infirmitz consequent on advancing years, he is unable to undertake active duties such as is required of a Sah-

so far relax the rules as to admit him to such ordinary pension as his length of service may entitle him to. If he can not,

native is to place
him in some subordi-

suited to his capacity.

The Chief hardship of this is not so much the immediate reduction of Salary as that, on his final retirement, the pension calculated on the average of his last 5 years of service will be proportionately diminished.
But on the other hand he has lately
