PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letters.

From P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Malabar; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 28th September 1859, No. 89.

In reply to Proceedings Madras Government, Judicial Department, and their Order thereon, dated September 8th, 1859, No. 1208, I have the honor to inform you that the proper heirs of Havildar Ahomed Khan, and Jemadar Coomaren Nair, are Amina Bee, the widow of the former, and Meenachee, the daughter and only child of the latter.

2. Lieutenant Blomfield, Commanding the Malabar Police Corps, to whom a reference on the subject of the pensions to be bestowed on the above heirs was made, is of opinion, that a monthly pension of Rupees three and Annas eight to each will be sufficient. These sums, it is to be observed, fall considerably within the amounts of pension allowed to the heirs of Native Officers, of corresponding rank in the Regular Army.

3. A Jemadar's heir receives a pension of Rupees 7-8-0, and a Havildar's receives Rupees 4-8-0—vide page 302 of Military Pay and Audit Regulations—and I should feel inclined to give the widow of the Jemadar a somewhat larger pension than Lieutenant Blomfield proposes. Considering the prices of the ordinary necessities of life, Rupees 5 will not be more than is requisite for her comfortable maintenance, and liberality in this instance I look on as good policy. Whatever pensions Government may resolve to grant to the heirs of deceased, they will, I presume, become payable from the date of death of the Officers.

From P. GRANT, Esq., Collector of Malabar; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 13th October 1859, No. 100.

With reference to your Memorandum of the 7th Instant, I have the honor to state, that in paragraph 3 of my letter adverted to by you, the term Havildar should be substituted for Jemadar. The heir of Havildar Ahomed Khan is his widow Amina Bee, and the heir of Jemadar Coomaren Nair, his daughter Meenachee.

Read also Telegram from the Magistrate of Malabar; to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 28th October 1859.

"I must apologize for the mistake. The Jemadar's heir is only two years old, and must, I suppose, get Rupees 4 and Annas 8, a higher pension seems unnecessary. The Havildar's widow should also be allowed Rupees 4 and Annas 8, the full pension of her rank, as a less sum would not suffice for her maintenance."

ORDER THEREON, 11th November 1859, No. 1536.

In accordance with the Proceedings of the 8th September last, No. 1208, the Honorable the Governor in Council sanctions the grant of a pension of (Rupees 4-8) four Rupees and eight Annas, to each of the undermentioned heirs, Meenachee, only child of Jemadar Coomaren Nair, and

both deceased Officers of the Malabar Police Corps. These pensions will commence from the dates of demise of the Officers, and be payable for life.

III, paragraph 147.

2. The Magistrate will submit the prescribed tabular application to Government in the Civil Pension Department, for the issue of the usual Certificates.
