G.O. No.	158	Press Mis.
Dated	15-5-1860.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

To
Colonel A. M. Gally
Commissary General of the Army
Madras

The humble Petition of A.
Rungasawmy Moodelliar late Manager of the Commissariat Department.

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner late Manager of the Commissariat Department on the frontier stations of the Nagpore and Hyderabad Subsidiary Forces begs to submit to you that he has served in the Commissariat Department nearly thirty four years invariably in responsible situations as his testimonials from several of the officers of the Department will shew with assiduity, with unflinching zeal and with acknowledged benefit to the Government your Petitioner from age and physical infirmities, brought on by extra arduous labour in his Department during the recent troubles as Major Webb can testify has been obliged to resign his situation and to retire upon his pension. The prayer of your Petitioner is that as his Pension and his private means are quite inadequate to maintain him in the condition he has moved and lived for a period of years and as his his infirmities render the possession of Comforts he has been used to more than ever necessary to him. You may be pleased to obtain for him the pay of the situation he has relinquished as a benevolent gratuity. He would further entreat if it should so please you to recommend him for Palangueen allowance as a mark of distinction in consideration of his services and as an accommodation but too necessary to his present exigencies.

Your Petitioner further more begs leave to submit in Appendix No 1 an Account of the Services of his father the late Woodokistnah Moodelliar rendered for nearly thirty years as Gram Agent in the first instance and afterwards Manager and Cash Keeper in the Commissariat Department of the Hyderabad Subsidiary Force on its first formation under Colonel McKintosh and subsequently in the first and Second Divisions of the Army during the late Maharatta War in the Deccan.
In regard to the good services rendered by his father, he possesses a Testimonial from General Sir John Doniston which he has affixed to Appendix No 1. Your Petitioner is aware that he can claim no special Credit for the good services of his father. All he presumes from submitting them for your consideration is

Shreevatsa Moodelliar
Tiruvengadu Moodelliar Ramaswamy Moodelliar

to show that good Conduct in the discharge of their duties is in a manner hereditary in the family and inasmuch as he can add that three of his paternal uncles named in the Margin also served in the Commissariat Department as Managers and Cashkeepers for long periods in Camp and in the field without impeachment or balance of any sort being attached to their Credit, but on the contrary as your Petitioner can safely affirm with Credit to themselves. The good Conduct of his father and relations was some guarantee for the continuance of zeal and fidelity in their descendants from the example of their ancestors the education they had thence derived and the habit in which they had been trained and from a sense of the gratitude they felt was due to a Government which had long cherished them. Your Petitioner humbly submits that when it can be shown that honorable service has been rendered by a family for nearly sixty years, it may not be considered an improper plea on the part of your Petitioner to hope to derive from that circumstance attention to the prayer of this his Petition being the only one Member of the family who, on his retirement, has received any compensation for past services and for which he ventures to hope that the numerous and valuable testimonials

Testimonials of his good Conduct and Services from all his Superior, Commisariat Officers and from all the Officers Commanding the Forces to which his Department was attached may give force.

Your Petitioner appends N^o 2 printed Copies of the testimonials he has received from the Officers of the Department from Brigadiers with whose Forces he has served as above referred to and a few Notes from Gentlemen of rank and position which will contribute to show and in so far your Petitioner hopes that you will not consider them superfluous, the estimation in which he has been held by Society at large.

Your Petitioner solicits attention particularly to the Testimonials, Letters and Notes from the undermentioned Officers.

From Major Trotter marked N^o 3 stating that he believes your Petitioner to be as valuable a Public Servant as he is in all the relations of private life. From Major Webb marked N^o 4 testifying to your Petitioner's Conduct during the time he served under him. From Major Trotter marked N^o 5 and 6 stating that your Petitioner made savings to Government on two occasions in obtaining Contracts for Grain and Straw. From Major Major Webb marked N^o 7 bringing officially to your notice your Petitioner's Services having been useful to Government in suppressing combination amongst dealers and thus obtaining a favorable offer to Government. From Brigadier Hill Commanding Hyderabad Contingent marked N^o 8 testifying to your Petitioner's Character and zeal for the interests of Government. From Captain Robertson marked N^o 9 shewing his belief that your Petitioner had been subjected to heavy losses by his removal from one office to another and testifying to his high opinion of your Petitioner's Services actual and potential.

Your Petitioner begs leave respectfully to hope that under all the circumstances above stated you will deem this his prayer worthy of your favorable consideration and Support and for which act of kindness your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward the Proceedings of a Medical Committee held on Rungasawmy & Moodelliar Head & Manager of this Office considered incapacitated for the further performance of his duties together with a Register for Superannuation pension.

I beg to bring to your special Notice the very zealous and efficient manner in which Rungasawmy & Moodelliar has conducted his arduous and responsible duties during the time he has served under me and indeed during his whole service of 33 years. His anxiety to assist in every way in his power, his straightforwardness, gentlemanly demeanour, liberality and amiability in private life have gained for him the esteem and regard of every one under whom he has served or become acquainted with.

He was a wealthier man when he entered the service of Government than he now leaves it and of that class of Native Gentlemen now become so scarce, particularly so during the late mutinies

1. With every desire to deal liberally with those who have served them long & faithfully, the Govt. do not consider that, in the present case, the grant of a higher rate of retiring allowance is called for.

2. Rangaswami

Govt employ for above 31 years, and being now compelled by ill health to resign is entitled to the higher rate

I. Resolved accord-ingly that certificate be issued making the above pension payable from the Secunderabad Treasury from the date from which he ceased to be employed.
This date should have been given in the

I have drafted on this case in accordance with existing rules. It is for govt to decide whether any - and, if so, what - special consideration is due to this individual. The App^t Com-missary General recommends that his full pay be continued to him as pension, in considera-tion of his valuable services.

It is not in the form of this form to grant a higher rate of pension than that now authorized for Rungaswami. He is only entitled to his previous salary - For a higher rate application must be made to the Secretary of State. The instances in which full pension has been given are very rare - I only recollect two.
