To

Chief Secretary to Government

Sir,

I have the honor to request sanction for gratuities on discharge to peons, who, on the transfer of the jail guard duties at Chittoor to the Police, were thrown out of employment, being disqualified, ^{as} Police peons. The Medical Officers' certificate is forwarded in regard to the seven first named, the other three were not considered fit by the Police though certified as qualified by the Surgeon; their case seems to be that of persons discharged on the abolition of the Office.

I have taken no heed to such as being qualified, declined service with the Police.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.
