when he was again dismissed for being suspected of having made a false Report, but was soon afterwards re-entertained namely on the 4th July of the same year.

3. At the Inspection of the Cattle &c. in September last, this individual having been found quite unfit to perform the duties required of him, Captain Ramsay recommended to the Commissioner that he should be removed, which recommendation was sanctioned by the Commissioner - He was accordingly struck off on the 31st of October last.

4. Under the Pension Rules this man appears to be entitled to Rupees 7 per mensem. I trust therefore the Commissioner will be pleased to forward the papers to Government for consideration.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for submission to the Commissioner a Register of an application for Superannuation Pension made by B. Gopauliah a late Darogah of the Amrut Mahal Department, together with the required Medical Certificate which shows his infirmities from old age to hold the appointment of a Darogah in this Department.

2. Gopauliah was at first employed in the Commisariat Office at Hoosoor as a Grain Concipoly from the 18th December 1830 to 8th April 1837. He was discharged by Major Watkins from that appointment for being suspected of fraud in a gram contract. He was afterwards entertained as a Darogah in this Department by Major Montgomery on the 14th December 1841, and held this position till the 21st April last,

This is to certify that Darogah B. Gopauliah of the Amrut Mahal Department is in my opinion unfit for further service in the active duties required of him in consequence of debility the result of old age. His ailments will permanently disable him, and do not appear to be the result of intemperance or other irregular habits.
