

to resort to them. hence it appears this occurred.

From all the foregoing reasons, I entertain suspicion of you. You are therefore to understand that you are from this date reduced to the Office of Salt Tanadar at Nizampatam at Rs 40 per mensem, as you are considered unfit for the post of a Tahsildar, and that you will immediately on the receipt of this order proceed to that station, take charge of your Office from Dharmavaram Adappa Tanadar, and perform the duties thereof regularly.

Translation of an order issued by A. Purvis Esq^r to Panugonda Narayanarao Tahsildar of Ponnur Taluq.
Dated 31st March 1853.

It having come to notice, that the duties connected with the collections of the Taluq, are not being properly performed by you, you are removed from 1st April, to the Tahsildarship of Dachapalli Taluq, of the pay of Rs 80-0-0.
You will therefore make over the charge of your office, immediately after the receipt of this order, to the Seristadar, and proceed to Dachapalli Taluq, & take charge of that Taluq from the Seristadar, and conduct yourself carefully in the Sarkar duties.

Translation of an order issued by H. Newill Esq^r to Panigonda Narayanarao Tahsildar of Tumuru -godu Taluq. - Dated 9th August 1856.

The charge brought against you, Caza Adaya, & Balaje peon, that you have caused one Dasari Bhimaya - to be tied legs and neck together to obtain the balance of his Cist was investigated before the Head ~~of the~~ Magistrate, and tho' there is not such clear proof in the record of the enquiry, as is sufficient for your conviction, and punishment, yet it is to be inferred that the complainant could not have been dealt with in the said manner without your orders. Even tho' such act is said to have been done without your orders, it may be presumed that your authority as Tahsildar was not respected when the said act was committed in broad day light in the

Bazar

Bazar before the house in which you put up - I don't think therefore that this affair did take place without your knowledge - As it is generally believed that such acts as are above described have been committed with your connivance, it is to be presumed the complainant Bhimaya did not complain to you - fancying it would be of no avail - Moreover it appears from the deposition of the 1st witness that when the complainant came to your lodgings & after he was liberated from the condition in which he was tied legs & neck together, you said "you cannot be freed from the amount of the balance" "so you must pay it up." From this it is to be considered that you did at first send him out with orders to force him to pay the money. When it is your duty to take steps to prevent the commission of such acts, you have failed to do so giving your permission.
