Sir,

Understanding that in his Report on my application for a Pension (which is now pending before Government) the Civil Auditor has excluded my Service as an Apprentice, I beg leave respectfully to bring to your notice the case of Mr. J. H. Hogg, as an established precedent for the admission of that period of Service.

Ex: Min: Cou: 30th Octr. 1844. R.D. No. 1106.

I beg also respectfully to submit that my case is the strongest of the two. Mr. Hogg, including his apprenticeship had served only 25 Years, and he received a moiety of his salary as pension; I have served similarly Yrs. M. days 32-11-8 – the period of apprenticeship being the same in both cases.

Mr. Hogg for the last 2 Yrs. & 10 months of his service drew Rs. 140 pr mensem, and before that for 9 Years 100 Rs. monthly.

I have drawn Rs. 200 monthly for 3¼ Years, and before that Rs. 140 for nearly 6 Years.

Mr. Jordan was Manager of the late Deputy Surveyor Generals of India's Department when he first came much under my personal observation in March 1854. In that responsible position, he never failed to afford me full satisfaction, from his assiduity and admirable acquaintance with the records of his Department.

Mr. Jordan is a particularly respectable and painstaking public servant, and a skilful Topographical Draftsman. He unites with great method, much tact and correct judgment, and in his late Chief employment of correcting the orthography of Native Towns, names &c. &c., his assiduity and good conduct have been most exemplary. I can confidently recommend Mr. Jordan to the protection of my Successor, who will find him strictly trustworthy, and zealous in the discharge of whatever may be entrusted to him. PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following papers :—

From the Chief Engineer,	(dated 17th July 1860.)
From the Military Auditor General,	(dated 2nd June 1860.)
From the Civil Auditor,	(dated 8th June 1860.)
From Mr. J. W. Jordan, late Head Draftsman, Government Lithographic Press, Department Public Works,	(dated 25th June 1860.)

ORDER THEREON, th July 1860, No. .

In the first of the foregoing papers the Chief Engineer submits for favorable consideration an application for Superannuation pension in favor of Mr. Jordan, late Head Draftsman of the Lithographic Department in the Central Office.

2. Mr. Jordan has served the Government continuously since 1834, or for a period of 26 years, the whole of which is admissible in counting for pension. Besides this he previously served an apprenticeship of 7 years, thus raising his aggregate service to 33 years. The Civil Auditor however strikes this 7 years from the calculation and thereby brings the term of service below the minimum required for the higher rate of pension.

3. Mr. Jordan submits that there is no rule forbidding the admission of service passed as Apprentice, and that as the Civil Auditor offers no reasons in support of his opinion, he is entitled to the benefit of the doubt. He points to the case of Mr. Hogg, in which the Government granted ½ pension for 25 years, of which 7 were passed in the very grade which is now excluded, and he finally pleads that, as the malady* which compelled his retirement was brought on by the nature of the work assigned to him, he is entitled to the sympathy and consideration of the Government.

* Incipient blindness.

4. Independent of the question whether the 7 years may not be allowed to count as time qualifying for pension, the Government think consideration is due to the circumstances under which Mr. Jordan is compelled to retire. In their Despatch to the Government of India, No. 15 of 1849, replying to an application for a special pension, and declining to permit a relaxation of the rules, the Honorable Court of Directors detailed those exceptional circumstances which could alone be regarded as constituting a claim to special consideration. Among these is mentioned " a sudden termination to official service from a visitation, such as blindness, which wholly incapacitates from every kind of employment." In the present case incipient blindness has necessitated Mr. Jordan's retirement, and the circumstances would seem to justify an application of this liberal reserving clause in his favor.

5. Application will accordingly be made to the Home Government recommending the grant to Mr. Jordon of a retiring allowance equal to half his official salary, and meanwhile a pension at the lower rate or Rupees 60 per mensem will be passed to him from the 1st May.

The sole grounds on which a justification of the relaxation of Rules so liberal in their provisions as are the Superannuation Pension Rules for the Uncovenanted Service can fairly be based, are either extraordinary service performed, injuries sustained in the discharge of public duty, or a sudden termination to Official Service resulting from a visitation, such as blindness, which wholly incapacitates from every kind of employment.

I beg to inform that my Pension Papers are now at the Civil Auditor's from whenc they will go to Government by Monday or Tuesday.

The Civil Aud^r in his report to Govt. If this service is not

This is to certify that John William Jordan was employed in my Office as a Draftsman for the space of Two years. I part with him now with much reluctance, but being unwilling to oppose his advancement to a more lucrative situation, I have given my consent to his accepting a situation in the Military Board Office. Mr. Jordan's conduct while under me may be inferred from the above para; but I feel I should not be acting justly towards him, if I did not add that a more exemplary, attentive, and intelligent young man never came under my charge.

Mr. J. W. Jordan was admitted into the Military Board on the 24th February 1840, and attached to the Engineer Department, his duties included those of a Clerk or Copyist, Examiner and Draftsman. his attendance has been regular, and his conduct completely satisfactory; he leaves the Military Board Office, having preferment offered him.

3 Mr. Jordan is now in the service about 33 years, which include a seven years apprenticeship, as marginally particularized – During this period, he has been employed in various capacities (Enclosure C) and has earned high testimonials from the several functionaries under whom he has served, and to these, I am here able to add, that, during the twelve months he has been under my charge, he has conducted himself to my entire satisfaction, having always been regular in his attendance, and pains taking in the performance of his work.
