To
The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir, I beg respectfully to inform you that having been advised by my Medical attendant to proceed to Madras on account of the ill health of my daughter, I have been obliged to return to the Presidency, and to request you will be pleased on consequence to authorize the payment of my Pension from the General Treasury here, from the 1st of the present Month, instead of by the Commissioner of Mysore by whom it was paid up to the 31st July last.

I beg to remain in Your most Obedient Servant
