The Humble Petition of Cannagannah late Waterwoman of the late Establishment of the Collector of Madras

Most Humbly Shewath,

That your Petitioner has served the said Establishment about 30 years and her ancestors also served in the said Establishment, during which time she conducted herself to the entire satisfaction of her superiors. After serving so long and on been discharged without the bounty of Government, she submitted a Petition to the Board of Revenue Praying for a remuneration for her past services, and the redress was- "Transferred to the Collector for disposal".- "The gratuity rules may perhaps apply to Petitioner's Case".+ The Collector's Endorsement- "The Colr. has recommended her for a gratuity of 21 Rupees or four months pay". Your Petitioner has spent all her strength in the service of the late Establishment of the Collector of Madras, she is of a weak constitution and old, unable to work for her future livelihood the gratuity recommended for four months is very little for her faithful services a servitude of 30 years she having several childrens all depending on her for support. Consequently, your

+ Board's Endorsement

Petitioner

Petitioner implose your Honor will take her poor Petition into Consideration and she Prays your Honor will allow her the gratuity some more months than what is recommended for four months or a small Pension. And your Petitioner as in duty bound, shall ever – –

On the Amalgamation of the Madras and Chengalput Collectorates, the public Servants noted in the margin, and who were on the former Establishment, expressed their desire to retire on Superannuation pension -

I have the honor therefore to request, that the pensions, entered in the registers herewith forwarded, and to which they seem entitled by their Service and good conduct, may be passed to them -

One Canagamah, a Sweeper on the Establishment on $\overset{Rs}{5}$-$\overset{A}{4}$-$\overset{P}{0}$ monthly, and who served in that capacity about 20 years, has requested a gratuity, on her situation having been abolished, and I would request permission to disburse to
