I do hereby certify that Dasarao Subarao, Stamp Darogah in Tharur, is incapacitated for the performance of his duties.

His present state of health is owing to the result of age and defective vision, and, as far as I am able to judge, not the result of intemperance or other irregular habits, and I am of opinion that no permanent benefit is likely to result from Medical treatment or relap-sation from duties, so as to render him again an efficient Government Servant, and that he is therefore a fit object for superannuation pension.

Report of the Acting Civil Auditor.

With advertence to the order of Government. Dated 5th Instant, referring for Report an Application for Superannuation Pension on behalf of Dassari Subaraidu, Stamp Daroga on the Establishment of the Collector of Godavari District, the Acting Civil Auditor has the honor to report that Subaraidu's service prior to the 15th June 1855 Cannot be allowed to reckon as service entitling him to pension or gratuity, as he was dismissed on that date for misconduct.

Dassari Subaraidu's service as a Stamp Daroga for the period of 1 Year, 1 month and 25 days, viz: from 6th April 1859 to 31st May 1860 is not of a nature which entitles a servant to pension.

His only reckonable service is that of Assistant Accountant, extending over a period of of 2 Years, 11 months and 13 days, viz. from 23^d April 1856 to 5th April 1859 which however entitles him neither to pension nor gratuity.

the supply of copper coin available, it came to my notice that 20 Rupees in copper had been paid to the Kail. Sarishtavar / since dead / in part of his salary although the payment, as appeared by the accounts, has been made in silver. This salary, it must be noticed, has been charged in the accounts a few days previously but has not been actually disbursed, because, it was said, the party who has been sent to receive it has left before it was ready.

3. The money having thus been debited, the Kail. Sarish-tavar's request to have a portion of his pay in copper could only be he complied with by, in fact, falsifying the accounts, shewing the different kinds of coins in hand, which was done accordingly. 20 Rupees in copper, though actually paid to the Kail. Sarishtavar's servant in part of his salary, were entered as forming a part of the sum sent the same day to one of the Talukds on account of wages.

4. D. Subharoyou admitted that he gave orders for this to be done and declared that a similar practice was not altogether uncommon, a similar falsification of the accounts being made to cover the transaction. No satisfactory explanation could be given in regard

regard to the Rail Sarnishtaas's pay having been charged and not paid, although it was contrary to positive order to debit any sum whatever in the accounts except at the moment of payment.

5 No actual fraud was intended, and I believe D Sukharayon to have acted as he did more through stupidity, than with a full sense of the great irregularity of the proceeding.
