Most Honored Sir,

With due respect and submission, I beg leave to bring to your honor's kind notice that, I was entertained, as English Writer on the 1st September 1917 in the Collector's Office at Coimbatore and continued in it upto 30th November 1921 when I resigned my post, with a view to get a better employment in the Zillah of Coimbatore, under the auspices of Mr. Whish, who was my Remfactor, then Collector in the above Zillah. But on my arrival at Madras, I was taken sick and unavoidably detained here for a period of 8 months without employment. In obedience to Mr. Whish's orders, I had afterwards joined his Office at Coimbatore on the 8th August 1922, and continued there for a period of 2 1/2 Years. In the mean while, as the climate did not agree with me, I was obliged to take leave of absence for two months from my employer and came down to the Presidency. On the 1st March 1925, I was taken in the Accountant General's Office and in 1925 I was appointed Accountant of the Military Department of the above Office, which duty I discharged, with credit to myself, to the entire satisfaction of my employers until the 1st April 1928 when the post of Accountant in your honor's Office having become vacant and the late General Waugh, then Military Auditor General, having required one well experienced in the Account branch, I was selected and recommended to the vacant post by J. C. Pendergast Esqrs, then Accountant General. I was accordingly transferred to fill the vacancy.

Ever since my appointment to the post, I have continued to perform the very onerous and responsible duties, entrusted to my charge, with my usual care and diligence to the entire satisfaction of the several Military Auditor Generals without any complaint against me. Since my employment in the Office, I have never availed myself of any leave, nor absented even on authorized Holidays unless the Office was entirely closed - my attendance at Office has been uniformly regular and punctual and always early. Till 10 A.M. I have never left it before 6 P.M. I have thus taken so great a care as to prevent the business of my Department from falling into arrears and prepared the numerous Statements &c required by the Accountant General's Department and the Government of India from time to time, besides furnishing the several informations required by the above Authorities.

As

As to the fact of my Statement, I most respectfully beg leave to refer your honor to Major Stewart, Deputy Military Auditor General, and Co. Mahony Esqre, the Acting Assistant Military Auditor General, who will, I humbly presume, give your honor every satisfaction.

Having thus exhausted my strength in the service of Government for upwards of 42 Years continuously, as detailed in the margin, I find myself at present unable to discharge my responsible

3. I am informed that my Predecessors entertained a high opinion of Armoogum's intelligence as an Accountant, and from
