To
Colonel J. M. Lane
Military Auditor General

Dear Sir,

With due respect and Submissions, I beg leave to bring to your Honour's Remembrance, Notice that I was appointed as English Writer in the Marine Police Office on the 1st April 1825, and continued in it up to 31st March 1828, when I resigned my post with a view to get a better employment in another Public Office. The period of my services above alluded to has been already on a reference to the Civil Auditor, verified by that Functionary -

On the 1st July 1830, I was admitted in your Honour's Office, and Subsequently directed to Superintend the preparation of the Queen's Troops Accounts, which were then much in arrears, for presentation & Submission to the Lords of the Court of Directors. I was accordingly rather much troubled and paid great attention attention and diligence, in the preparation of the above accounts, which were brought up in a few months, I was afterwards transferred to the Account Department, where I continued to discharge the various works entrusted to me. In 1843, I was nominated Deputy Accountant by the late General Waugh, then Military District General, to which onerous and responsible duty I have continued to perform, with every due care and diligence, to the entire satisfaction of my immediate Superior.

Having thus exhausted my thought in the service of Government for upwards of 33 years. I find myself quite unable to discharge my duties efficiently any longer through old age having attained the age of 62 years and being subject to rheumatic complaint

Under the above circumstances

Honored Sir I most respectfully request your goodness with as graciously pleased to have compassion on me and be so merciful as to submit my long and faithful services for the favorable consideration consideration of Government, supported by your kind recommendation with a view to grant me the boon of the usual Pension from 1st November next.

For which act of favor I shall continue to offer my fervent prayers to the Almighty God for your long & long life uninterrupted happiness and prosperity.

I beg leave to remain with the greatest respect Yours Most Obedient and Humble Servant
