The Applicant was dismissed from service for having mutilated an enquiry into a Police case and reported upon it without the sanction of the Tahsildar. He remained unemployed for 1 year and 2 months after his dismissal from service on the 29th December 1842 to the 28th February 1844 when he was re-entertained. However he was employed on the enquiry connected with the murder of Mr Conolly, and Mr Collitt bears testimony to his having exerted himself well and really endeavoured and with much success to procure good information regarding the movements of the murderers in the Chernad Taluq. He was on leave for 8 months and 19 days during which period a substitute was appointed to act for him.
