To

Colonel H. Marshall

Secretary to Government

Military Department.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to bring to your notice that I am a pensioner of the Government Office Military Department having been pensioned in the year 1856 as per Certificate, and as I am now desirous to proceed and join my son and daughter who are at Cocanada, I humbly request the favor of your obtaining me permission to proceed there and draw my pension at the Collector's office at Cocanada, (commencing from December to be payable in January) for which act of favor I shall remember with gratitude. -
