That the Postmaster General thereon concocted the Collector of South Arcot and made a concession so far as to dispense with the personal appearance of your Petitioner at his Treasury, but directed that your Petitioner should furnish monthly a life certificate to the Commissioner of Police at Pondicherry and authorize an agent to receive the Pension which payment to be at any risk.

That thankful as your Petitioner is for the concession which relieves his personal attendance still he humbly submits that the course suggested by the Collector does not absolve him from the expense which it is his chief object to avoid and besides entails on him the risk of loss of his Pension from possible abuse of trust for a life certificate is not always obtainable without a fee nor can he be sure of the fidelity of the agent he may employ.

Therefore your Petitioner humbly prays that your Excellency in Council will be graciously pleased to order in accordance with his original prayer to the Post Master General that his Pension be made payable through the Postmaster at Pondicherry as in the case of Charynada Pillay also a Pensioner of the Madras Post Office establishments.

Your

Pondicherry
20th July 1866.

Your Petitioner is perfectly satisfied that this will involve no inconvenience, in as much as the Postmaster has occasion to transfer money to the South Arcot Treasury a transfer which might be made both in the accounts of the Collector of South Arcot and the Postmaster at Pondicherry without disturbing any existing arrangement.
Of course the Postmaster will duly certify to the existence of your Petitioner.
I am, as of duty bound your Petitioner
