1 Jan'y 1850 to 13 Nov: 1859.	160. -	9. 10. 15.
		26. 6. 8.

which, added to the period he served in the District of Coimbatore, as per accompanying Original Statement furnished by the Collector of that District, gives a total servitude of 34 years 4 months and 15 days. The Applicant states that he had previously served as Ameen and Moonshee in the Salem District for a period of 6 years and 1 month but it appears by a communication from the Collector of Salem that it is not traceable on his records.

The Collector begs to subjoin the remarks submitted by the applicant, immediate Superior - the Sub Collector, on his case and requests that the recommendation therein contained may meet with due consideration -

"The applicant's period of service exceeds the average, and the way in which he has discharged the duties of the responsible office of Sheristidar for the last 26 years is beyond all praise.

26. Every Officer under whom he has served has recorded in strong terms of approbation his sense of Venkataramaniah's ^{high} ~~great~~ and integrity. The present incumbent can only re-echo the sentiments of his predecessors. He would however venture to crave a boon for this old and meritorious servant in addition to the pension which he has so well earned, and when the peculiar circumstances of his case are brought to their notice I feel assured, that Government will be prepared to lend a favorable ear to the request. The salary of Sub Division Sheristodars in other Districts is Rs 175. in some Districts I believe it amounts to Rs 200. For 4 years 10 Months Venkataramaniah only drew Rs 100. This was subsequently raised to Rs 132 which salary he drew for about 10 years and again at the earnest recommendation of the late Mr. Conolly this was increased to Rs 160, which amount he has been drawing up to the present time. The duties of Sub Division Sheristodars are quite as onerous in Malabar as in other Districts. Certainly more so than in the neighbouring District of Coimbatore. and the remuneration ought to be the same. The low rate of salary in this case cuts two ways. The applicant has not only received less remuneration for his services than officers of the same grade elsewhere, but his pension will be proportionably smaller. I venture to recommend therefore for the favorable consideration of Government that the difference between Rs 100 & 175 per Mensem for the last five years be given as a gratuity to this old and deserving public servant, and that his pension be calculated according to the higher rate of salary. Though he has so long held the responsible post of Sheristodar, his integrity has been such that he retires from the service a poor man. The people have the same confidence in him that they have in an European Officer, and a late Tahsildar notoriously on bad terms with him told me that he had never been known to take a bribe."
