Abstract of the grounds

Application Remitted by the Head of Office

Disqualification by desertion in further active service.

The applicant was faithfully served Government for a period of 40 years during which he performed his duties satisfactorily with the exception of the occurrence mentioned in Column 17 when he was considered for 6 months. His services however can be considered as being continuous under the order of Government published in the Fort St.
George Gazette dated 27 November 1855 Page 1426. For upwards of 5 years previous to 1860 he was drawing 75 Rupees a month. In May of that year his salary was reduced to 52 Rs.
The circumstance affects the pension to which he is now entitled giving him liberty only to claim 33-11-4 instead of Rupees 35 a month.
I would beg to recommend him to Government for the higher rate of pension (35 Rs) - He has served long & faithfully & lent for changes over which he had no control would have had a title to it.

A medical certificate stating that the applicant is unfit for further active service is herewith enclosed.
