Testimonials of character from his former Superiors accompanying this, and, his conduct, and character have been unexceptionable, during the 12 years he has been under me.

For the past year and a half he has been constantly complaining of ill health, impaired Vision, and other infirmities of advanced life, rendering him incapable of performing his duties in the same satisfactory manner he has hitherto done - chiefly attributable to the close mental application required by his duties, coupled with the general impaired state of his health, and, I consider him incapacitated for further effective employment.

I have fixed the rate of Pension with reference to the responsibility of his duties, and his general good character, and, under all the circumstances of his case, I consider him entitled to the the favorable consideration of ¹⁵ Government.
