Honored Sir,

With due respect and submission, I beg leave to lay the following few lines before your honor in earnest hopes of the request therein prayed for being complied with.

Having had the honor to serve in this Office for a long period of 40 Years (and 3 Months, I have conducted the several duties entrusted to me with every satisfaction, and gained the good opinion of my several Superiors under whom I was placed. Major part of my services was rendered in the Audit Department, the most important branch of the duties of the Office. May I also state that, during the long service, my attendance has been uniformly regular. Thus having exhausted my strength in the service of Government, I am now rendered, by this old age and consequent infirmities, unequal to the efficient performance of public duties, and therefore request your honor will kindly recommend my Case to the Military Auditor General and Government, and obtain for me a Superannuation Pension in consideration of my long and faithful services, above which is bestowed upon from Public Servants of my description.

For which act of favor I shall, as is duty bound.

Ever Truly
