From V. H. Levinge Esq^r
Collector of Madras
To J. Dyer Esq^r
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir, With reference to the Official Memo: in the Public Department dated 30th April 1861 directing me to furnish a medical certificate on behalf of Sham Row for whom an application for pension had been sent on the 12th April 1861. I have the honor to report that the Zilla Surgeon reports that Sham Row is fit for further service - as he is under 30 years service, he is not therefore eligible for pension; he is 50 years of age, served 25 years and was put out of employment on the rearrangement of Salugs and therefore I beg to recommend a pension of 1/3 his salary being granted him.

I have the honor to be
