Reverend and Dear Sir

I have the honor to inform you that one of the Deacons of The Church Establishment at this Station - Dabapah, by name - has become, through age and infirmity, unable to discharge any longer his duty, and is utterly unfit for the

the Public Service.

I am desirous of knowing whether I am at liberty to employ a Deen, temporarily, in Dassapah's place, or, if permission can be given to do so, in order that the public service may not suffer from the Deen's inability to serve any longer, whether it is the Church Committee who appoint.

I have the pleasure to inform you that it is a pleasing duty for me to recommend highly, through you, this most trustworthy and excellent

30 old servant for the largest amount of Gratitude which Government may be pleased to bestow upon him: he merits every consideration, by his high Character, and long service.

I have the honor to submit for your inspection and consideration, as I understand it is my duty to do, a statement of Deen Dassapah's service.

I have the honor to be
Respect and Dear Sir
Yours faithfully,
B. Mearns Deane.
Chaplain of Bellamy.

From, The Rev. J. Dentry
Commissary of the Diocese.

To, J. Pycroft Esq.
Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,
I have the honor to forward a letter with a tabular statement from the Rev. F. O. M. Leane Chaplain of Bellary, applying for a gratuity for Dassapah, for thirty three years from of the Beller-y Chaplaincy.

In consideration of his long and faithful service I trust that Government may be pleased to award to this aged and worn out employe a gratuity of six months pay, as they recently did in the case of the Sexton of Ramptee.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Yours most Obedt. Servant.

Thomas Dentry.
Commissary of the Diocese.
