Brach. 6-July 1864.

I do hereby certify that I have examined Ramaiah Brahim, writer in the office of the Superintendent of Marine, and that he is incapacitated, by debility consequent on advanced age and by catarrh of both eyes, for the performance of his duty: and further that there is no probability of his ever becoming fit to resume his employment.

Ramaiah Brahim's incapacity for duty does not, in my opinion, arise from intemperance or other imprudence on his part, but simply results from his advanced age.
